WOMAN'S WEIGH

Does not always keep pace with woman's will. There are energetic, home-loving women who by sheer force of will keep themselves going, and fancy that strength of will can take the place of strength of body. But it can't. Every day will see a loss of strength, and that loss will be indicated by a loss of weight. When the weight begins to fall below the normal it is time to ask, Why?

In general, ill health in women may be traced to those womanly diseases which sap the strength and undermine the vitality. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription dries enfeebled drains, heals inflammation and cures female weakness. Where the disease is marked by loss of flesh, there is a steady regaining of weight coincident with the cure which proves the renewal of health to be thorough and permanent.

"Three years ago," writes Mrs. John Graham, of 213 Plum Street (Frankford), Philadelphia, Penna. "I had a very bad attack of dropsy which left me with heart trouble, and also a very weak back. At times it was so bad that I did not know what to do with myself. I came to Philadelphia two years ago, and picking up one of your little books one day began to read what your 'Favorite Prescription' had done for others. I determined to try it myself. I took seven bottles, and to-day I am a strong, well woman, weighing 140 pounds since I started to use your 'Favorite Prescription'."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.

SHADOWS ON THE WHITE HOUSE

The Washington correspondent of the New York Sun says: Several times during the last three years there have been published in the Sun descriptions of the various singular shadows that have appeared from time to time on the north or main porch of the White House. One of these shadows represented the profile and bent form of an old woman, with one hand resting on an indistinct object that resembled a spinning wheel. This shadow, cast by the sun's rays shining through the railing, which is a part of the Colonial structure at the top of the mansion, appeared daily at a certain hour for two or three weeks; and as it was King's mother died, the phenomenon made a deep impression on many superstitious persons.

Last fall another shadow appeared, and it required no effort of the imagination to recognize it as a human forearm and hand, with bent finger upheld in the attitude of warning or reproach. Superstitious folks who saw it every day for a fortnight or so again had a chill, while others remarked facetiously that the incident ought to be a comfort to the anti-imperialists who have so long been predicting calamity. If the public has regarded these publications in the Sun as a kind of mythical or or more "phantom" stories, the affidavits of all the messengers and guards at the White House can be brought forward to substantiate them.

The latest manifestation of freakishness on the White House portico appeared yesterday. The sun was shining brightly, and at ten minutes before 1 o'clock a shadow of nondescript form appeared on the great pillar at the extreme northwest corner of the portico. It soon took on definite shape, and at 1 o'clock represented the face and shoulders of President McKinley in profile. The silhouette was so striking to its accuracy that many persons who saw it remarked that a more correct profile drawing of Mr. McKinley could not be made by any artist. The likeness was not a correct one for more than two minutes. It gradually changed with the altering position of the sun, and at ten minutes past 1 o'clock had assumed a remarkably perfect likeness to the face of the late Queen Victoria, even to an object on the head resembling a crown. This likeness lasted for two or three minutes and then gradually disappeared. Two hours later the same succession of shadow-portraits appeared on the northeast pillar, at the opposite side of the portico forty feet away.

THE WIFE'S FOOT TO HIS.—A novel way to keep a wife home at night was disclosed yesterday in the supreme court, Brooklyn. Justice Dickey allowed Mrs. Elizabeth A. Lewis $8 a week alimony so that she could prosecute an action against her husband, William B. Lewis, a shipping clerk of No. 81 Murray street, Manhattan, for a limited divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. She accused her husband of pulling her hair out.

Mr. Lewis said that his wife was addicted to the excessive use of liquor, and that under its influence she had thrown a sugar bowl, a milk picher and an andiron at his head. Sometimes he had to lie on the floor of his wife's room at night to prevent her from going out for liquor, and when that scheme failed he would tie a string to one of his wife's feet and to one of his own so that he would know if she got up late at night to go out.

Mr. Lewis declared that his wife did not need any of his money, because she inherited $5,000 and owned the property No. 26 Fillmore Place.—[New York Sun.]

FIRST SEVEN MASTED SCHOONER.—The first seven masted schooner ever constructed is to be built in the yard of John P. Gordon, at Franklin, on the shores of Frenchman's Bay, Me., the coming season. She is to be of 335 feet keel, 54 feet beam and 32 feet hold, outfitting in size any schooner afloat. The frame will be cut in the Maine woods near the yard, and will be the heaviest ever put into a vessel in that State. Mr. Gordon has made arrangements with Sawyer Brothers, of Milbridge, to take charge of the building, and it is expected that the work will begin in April, or sooner.

The big schooner is to be owned in quarter sections by John P. Gordon, of Franklin; Crabtree & Hovey, of North Sullivan; Dunbar Brothers, of Sullivan, and Captain Orlando Foss, the largest schooner now afloat are the Eleanor A. Perry and the George W. Wells, both six masted of about 300 feet keel.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids to the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cts. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren street, New York.

The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Recent experiments show that all classes of foods may be completely digested by a preparation called Kodol Dyspepsia cure, which absolutely digests what you eat. As it is the surest remedy for the most distressing ever devised the demand for it has become enormous. It has never failed to cure the worst cases of indigestion and it always gives a instant relief.
